FaithTrust
INSTITUTE

Working together to end
sexual & domestic violence

ANNUAL REPORT

2008-2009

Year of Responding

Our Mission

FaithTrust Institute provides religious leaders and community advocates with the tools and knowledge they need to address the religious and cultural issues related to abuse.

Our Vision

FaithTrust Institute envisions a world where religious institutions create a climate in which abuse is not tolerated; faith communities become sanctuaries of safety, worthy of our trust; and all of us experience justice and healing in our communities.

As a national, multifaith, multicultural training and education organization with global reach working to end sexual and domestic violence, FaithTrust Institute continues to respond to the needs of our clients. This year we redoubled our efforts around healthy boundaries by offering leadership training specific to clergy ethics and congregational health. We also released new clergy ethics resources. Thank you for your ongoing support as we work toward a world free from violence and abuse.

Our Services

“As a church conference leader, I specifically receive comments about how real the clips from Hear Their Cries are and that they very much make present the importance of Child Abuse protection in the church.”

—Nancy, Conference Coordinator,
United Methodist Church

“People really loved the DVD program Garments for One Another. I did too. This DVD was the highlight of the meeting to understand the cultural issues—so informative and insightful.”

—Martha, customer

FaithTrust Institute provides training, consulting, and educational materials to secular organizations and religious communities throughout the United States and the world. During 2008–2009, FaithTrust Institute conducted training on domestic and sexual violence, healthy teen relationships, clergy ethics and healthy boundaries in 16 states and in two countries. More than 2,100 religious leaders and advocates attended FaithTrust Institute training on domestic violence, and more than 400 clergy and lay leaders attended FaithTrust Institute training on clergy ethics.

Our educational materials (DVD training programs) reached more than 15,000 victim and survivors.

“I thank FaithTrust Institute for existing. For those of us who continue to serve congregations and are faced with the impact of domestic violence upon parishioners daily, it is a blessing to know that there is a resource—a place to go—for direction and help so that we may help our parishioners.”

—Rev. Kilen Gray, Dean of Students, Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary

"I suffered abuse at the hands of my pastor husband for 24 years. No one would believe that this man would ever hurt me or our children. It was not until I found FaithTrust Institute that I finally understand what was really happening to me and that there was indeed abuse happening to me and my children ... FaithTrust Institute is doing wonderful work educating people to understand abuse, to support women and children experiencing it, and to educate the public to recognize and not tolerate abuse. There just are not other organizations who understand how faith and abuse issues cause many women to stay in lethal situations."
